

“IPC Challenges when delivering Clean Safe Care.”

Venue – ASHES SUITE
08:45	Registration, Refreshments with Breakfast Butties & Exhibition Viewing
	Chairing: Karen Hawker – Infection Prevention Society London South Coordinator
09:30	Welcome and Housekeeping
09:40	Session 1– Keynote Address “Mission Impossible” Challenges in the IPC workplace and strategies to help you get through the day. Speaker: Pat Cattini Past President Infection Prevention Society Associate DIPC – University Hospitals Sussex NHS Foundation Trust
10:15	Session 2 – The Role of the Link Practitioner Speaker: Dorothy Chakani Lead Nurse Infection Prevention and Control – The Royal Marsden NHS Foundation Trust
10:50	Session 3 – Respiratory virus diagnostics and application of results Speaker: Professor Katie Jeffery Consultant Clinical IPC, Doctor & Director IPC – Oxford University NHS Foundation Trust Professor of Microbiology & Hospital Epidemiology – Oxford University
11:20	Refreshments and Exhibition Viewing – Jardine Suite
	Chairing: IPS Joint London Branch Conference Organising Committee
11:50	Session 4 – Dealing with Vascular Access challenges – A practical guide Speaker: James Bitmead Senior IPC Nurse – University College Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
12:25	Session 5 – “What’s that coming over the hill?” Are you ready for Norovirus? Speaker: Martin Kiernan Clinical Fellow – Richard Wells Research Centre, University of West London Clinical Director – Gama Healthcare
13:00	Lunch and Exhibition Viewing – Jardine Suite
	Chairing: IPS Joint London Branch Conference Organising Committee
14:00	Session 6 – The Essentials of Ventilation in Healthcare Speaker: Peter Hoffman Consultant Clinical Scientist (Retired) HCAI & AMR Division, National Infection Service, UKHSA
14:35	Session 7 – A Measles outbreak in South London Speaker: Karen Bernard Senior Health Protection Practitioner, South London Health Protection Team, UKHSA
15:10	Session 8 – “I am too busy and have a lot on my mind” Healthcare Workers’ perspectives on what drives use of protective behaviours during a pandemic. Speakers: Carly Meyer & Elise Crayton Research Fellows – Centre for Behaviour Change, University College London
15:45	Session 9 – Conference Presenters Panel (Open question, and answer & discussion time. Your opportunity to ask the presenters any burning questions)
16:15	Closing remarks: Karen Hawker – IPS London South Coordinator

If you are on Twitter follow the Infection Prevention Society on @IPS_Infection. Use #IPSLonJoint21 to tweet about the IPS Joint London Branch Conference

For more information and all IPS news like the Infection Prevention Society Facebook page

Getting to the Venue

Address (access through Alex Stewart Gate see red arrow on the picture below):

The Kia Oval, Kennington Oval, London SE11 5SS

By car

Sat Nav: SE11 5SS (Parking is now fully booked)

By train

Vauxhall Station: Victoria Line / South Western Railway (10 minute walk to the venue)

Oval Station: Northern Line (100 metres on your left leaving the station to the venue)

